WAKEFIELD COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC SAFETY

The Wakefield Committee on Public Safety was appointed by the Selectmen on April 14, 1917, with the following membership: William N. Rogers, chairman; Herman H. Sanborn, secretary; Frank J. Leavitt, William M. Lord, Nathan O. Weeks, Everett J. Tibbetts, J. Frank Farnham,

This committee, at its first and only meeting, held on April 20, 1917, appointed the following sub-committees: On Food Production, Conservation and Distribution: Everett K. Freeman, chairman; Winfield S. Chase, secretary;

Charles F. Bancroft, Clarence O. Meserve, Melville A. Marsh, John E. Corson, Edwin A. Himes. On State Protection: Myron L. Johnson, chairman; Wilbur E. Knight, secretary; Arthur L. Foote, John Gage, Henry C. Tibbetts.

During the season of 1917 a campaign for an increased production of foodstuffs was carried on with excellent results, shown in a larger number of "war" gardens and an increased acreage of general farm crops. Wheat was, for the first time in many years, sown by many farmers. In 1918, a larger number of farmers sowed wheat, with very good yields.

A fund of $100 was placed at the disposal of the committee to defray expenses that it might incur. The financial report follows:

Librarian's Report

To the Library Trustees of the Town of Wakefield:

I present the following report for the year ending February 15, 1919.

The library during the past year has been open for the distribution of books two days each week, both afternoon and evening. We have served directly 108 persons who have availed themselves of the opportunity of borrowing books, and, through them, a much larger number have been reached. It may be interesting to note that 58 of our patrons are children, who are most regular and enthusiastic in their attendance.

The entire circulation for the year is 3,134 volumes. Of this number, 705 were magazines; 1,471 fiction; 78 non-fiction; and 880 juvenile, books.

The reading table has been furnished with the following magazines: World's Work, Munsey's, Mentor, Youths'

Companion, St. Nicholas, American Boy, Popular Science, Woman's Home Companion, McCall's, National Geographic Magazine.

The 86 volumes which have been added to the library this year are divided among the various classes as follows:

Fiction	22
Books of travel	3
Topics of the day	13
Domestic science	2
Agriculture	8
Biography	2
Juvenile	34

Most of the books used in the free correspondence course given this year by New Hampshire College have been added to the library. They include gardening, orchard management, keeping bees, dairy work, stock raising, and feeding the family.
